GIVE LOLLIPOPS AND DOLLARS AS PARADE PRIZES

Lollipops and silver dollars were distributed Tuesday evening in connection with the Kiddies Sesquicentennial parade held on S. Washington St. from Chambersburg St. to Recreation Field.

Two-dollar first and one-dollar second prizes were awarded to the contestants. The parade was led by the Gettysburg Junior High School band.

While the number of entrants in the parade was small, the number of spectators was large and the costuming of the participants was described by the judges as "excellent."

Won Prize As "Lincoln"

Randy Stallsmith, Biglerville, won first prize for best dressed boy, wearing a Lincoln outfit; Eddie Zeger, Gettysburg R. D. in a blue outfit that would have been perfect in the 1890s, was second.

Ellen Zeger, Gettysburg R. D., was first as best dressed girl, with a costume her great grandmother might have worn while shopping in Gettysburg and Molly Ecker, E. Stevens St., was second.

Granville Schultz, Baltimore St., whose false beard and derby rivaled the "Wearers of the Whiskers," won first place for most original boy's outfit. Craig Stallsmith, Biglerville, was second.

DRIVER HURT, CAR SMASHED TUESDAY NIGHT

Ralph W. Myers, 32, Gardeners R. 1, escaped with a possible fracture of the ankle and body bruises when his car was demolished, after striking a utility pole, seven miles north of Biglerville on the Carlisle Rd. Tuesday night at 10:05 o'clock.

Myers told state police he was driving south when he came over the crest of a hill and saw two trucks coming at him. The vehicles, he said, were apparently passing. One was in his own lane, the other was in his lane.

$1,400 Damage

The Gardeners R. 1 man swung his car onto the berm, he told police, in order to avoid the oncoming vehicles. He lost control of his car and it smashed into a pole, breaking it off, swerved and turned over on the highway.

Mt. Holly Springs firemen came to the scene to direct traffic until state police could arrive and the Myers car could be righted and towed away. The firemen then washed debris from the highway.

The Myers' vehicle was demolished. Police estimated the damage at $1,400. Myers did not seek medical attention immediately, but said he planned to visit his family physician for treatment for the injury to his right ankle and contusions of the body.

Crash Near Hampton

The accident was one of two investigated by state police from the Gettysburg sub-station Tuesday.

No one was injured and damage totaled $600 when two cars collided at 12:35 o'clock Tuesday afternoon near Hampton at the intersection of the East Berlin-Heldersburg Rd. with the Carlisle-Hanover road.

Police said Mrs. Elda A. Kling, 70, East Berlin, traveling west, was attempting to cross the Hanover-Carlisle Rd. to a service station when her car was struck by a south-bound car operated by Clair Martin, 31, Hanover, sales manager for Peterman's garage, Hanover. Damage was listed as $100 to the Kling sedan and $500 to Martin's car.

Ready To Cooperate

After giving the details of his plan, Dulles told the delegates: "The extent of its practical utility will, of course, depend much—though not wholly upon—Egypt's attitude."

"But our readiness to cooperate with Egypt on a practical basis serves again to demonstrate our desire to leave no reasonable step untried in the search for a solution of the grave problem that confronts us and indeed the world."

"Our readiness to cooperate with Egypt on a de facto provisional basis may also suggest a provisional solution which the United Nations might find it useful to invoke while the search for a permanent solution goes on."

Egypt's President Nasser has already condemned the users' association idea as tantamount to a declaration of war if implemented.

Go To U.N. Council

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, chairman of the meeting, said the U. N. Security Council would be consulted at some time in the Suez dispute. He did not elaborate.

Sweden, Iran and Spain immediately called for further talks with the Nasser regime, which earlier this month rejected—even as a basis for negotiations—the 18-nation proposal for international control of the waterway.

LOCAL FILMS TO BE SHOWN THIS EVENING

Gettysburgians this evening will have an opportunity to see themselves as they were in 1938 during the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg; as they were at other periods in the town's more recent history; as the town has appeared when it served as the "capitol of the United States" during the President's stays; and will also see 300 feet of film made in connection with the Sesquicentennial.

The full night of "home grown" movies of Gettysburg will be shown this evening at 8 o'clock at the Court House as part of the Sesquicentennial program.

The 200 feet of film made by Lane and narrated by G. Henry Roth at the service clubs program Monday night will again be shown—plus the 100 feet of film that did not arrive from the processors in time for Monday evening's program.

To Show '38 Films

Motion pictures of the 75th anniversary, the dedication of the Peace Light and Reunion of the Blue and Gray made by C. Paul Cessna and Joseph Hoffman will be shown.

A film made over a period of some months in connection with the Presidential and governmental activities here, showing officials as they arrived and left, took part in press conferences, etc., will be filmed. The movie was made by Miss Peggy Long.

In addition it is planned to show the movie made of the county Sesquicentennial in 1950 and other films of Gettysburg taken by various individuals over the years.

There will be no admission charged for the filming which will begin in the court room at 8 o'clock. Tickets for the Sesqui pageant, however, will be on sale for those who wish to purchase them at that time.

Tuesday evening the local guard's basketball team also held its first practice with Sgt. Robert L. Woodson as manager. The team is a member of the 104th Regimental League and is open to all guardsmen. Last year the local team came within one game of winning the league title.

Saturday the local National Guard will participate in the Sesquicentennial parade. Lt. Tarheel Deputy Has His Own Way With Fugitives

If you're a fugitive from justice from North Carolina and you are apprehended outside that state you'll probably have a good (?) time before you are returned home. At least that's the impression a deputy sheriff from that Tarheel state gave to several local residents Thursday.

Along about mid-afternoon Thursday several Baltimore Street merchants alerted Police Chief Bartlett to several men who were staggering around showing visible signs of being intoxicated. They were getting in and out of a car.

One of the occupants staggered into the Varsity barber shop and asked for a haircut. In a moment he was sound asleep in the chair while the barber hacked away at his bobbing head. TOWN HISTORY REVEALED IN STORE DISPLAYS

An unusual bit of Gettysburg history—the fact that it once had as a resident an inventor who gained seven patents—is shown in a display at the Raymond Home Furnishing store window.

Three of the seven patents obtained by David Warren, great-grandfather of Herbert Raymond and Mrs. Gladys Kelley, both of Gettysburg, are exhibited. The patents shown are one issued in 1859 for an automatic farm gate—fore-runner of today's "electric eye" doors; one dated 1859, for a knife bar and cutter on a reaper, and one dated 1860, for a seed planter.

Family tradition has it that Mr. Warren just missed fame and fortune by inventing the "frog" used on railroads throughout the world. He had filed first papers, when a railroad company appeared with a similar invention and won out in a law suit.

Other Interesting Displays

Mr. Warren for many years had charge of the local water works and was one of the owners of the Warren Brothers mill a century ago.

A great amount of early Gettysburg history is shown in the numerous windows throughout the town that have been especially decorated for the sesquicentennial period.

Jennie Wade's portrait is well known to Gettysburgians but Jennie Wade's mother is shown in a display at the Carlisle St. office of Harry D. Ridinger. The picture was given by Mrs. Wade to Mrs. Hattie Ridinger when Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Ridinger were neighbors on Breckenridge St. A picture is also shown of Mrs. Mary McClellan, Jennie Wade's sister. A 150-year-old spinet is also displayed in the window.

A large number of ancient articles pertaining to the town are shown in the display window at Grant's store on Chambersburg St. At Beamer's Meat store on York St. an 1834 Republican Compiler is shown, along with a number of ancient almanacs, going back to 1821.

Gain Two Members

Two new members were accepted into Company A at Tuesday's meeting. They were Gerald E. Brough, Bendersville, and Blaine N. Benda, Highland Ave.

Benda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto T. Benda, 801 Highland Ave., enlisted under the eight-year program open to youths between the ages of 17 and 18½ and will begin his six months of active duty February 1, 1957. He is currently associated with his father in the operation of the Western Auto Store, York St.

Lt. Hershey also reminded young men who have served two years active duty with the armed forces that they still have an obligation of three years duty with the active reserve.

And, John W. Kuhel told a news conference, if his 14-year-old son hadn't fired his shots yesterday, "I would never have seen my youngster or wife again."

Discuss Soil Bank Plan

The possibility of placing some wheat land at the county farm in the soil bank program was discussed by the commissioners today.

Herbert Taylor, county home superintendent, was asked to arrange with the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee to place a number of acres in the program. The county home farm has an 18-acre wheat allotment. The county will seek to place up to about 20 acres in the bank if it is possible. Under present regulations, one-half the allotted wheat acreage may be placed, but there are provisions that if there is "acreage left over" after all Pennsylvania farmers wishing to do so have signed, any acreage unused under the amount allocated to the state for the soil bank may be divided among those farmers who have indicated a desire to place additional acreage in the "soil bank."

Contracts for the construction of two bridges over the Opossum Creek were signed, and forwarded to the contractor W. D. Drawbaugh and Emerich Construction Co., Dover. The company's bid for the bridges, at Deardorff's Mill and the Aspers Rd., was accepted last week. The contract calls for the work to be completed in 90 days.

COLLEGE OPENS ON THURSDAY; 1,400 STUDENTS

Gettysburg College, oldest Lutheran college in America, will open its 125th session Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in Christ Chapel. More than 1,400 students, scheduled to begin classes Friday, will be enrolled for the 1956-57 school year. That figure includes more than 400 freshmen and other new students.

General Willard S. Paul will be starting his first school year as president of the college. General Paul, whose formal inauguration will take place Oct. 19, assumed the duties as Gettysburg's ninth president on July 1.

With registration of freshmen and other new students completed Monday, registration began at 8:30 o'clock this morning for all returning students. So as not to lose time from practice drills, all members of the 1956 football team registered first. Registration, which is taking place in the Eddie Plank memorial gymnasium, began in alphabetical order and will continue that way until approximately 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

Commissioners Asked For Price By Schoolmen

The Adams County Commissioners were asked this morning to set a price on a ten-acre section of the county home farm by next Wednesday.

Ray J. Kitzmiller, president of the Gettysburg joint school board; Gettysburg Superintendent of Schools Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver and Adams County Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Reigle met with the commissioners in the court house this morning.

Following discussion on the proposal to construct a new elementary school for the Gettysburg Joint School System on county land, the delegation asked the commissioners to set a final price by next Wednesday in order to permit action by the Gettysburg jointure at its October 8 meeting.

Several figures were mentioned by the commissioners as their possible price for the ten-acre area along the north side of E. Broadway extended, and east of the Harrisburg Rd. The area under discussion is the fenced-in section of the county home land extending from the Harrisburg Rd. to a small stream.

Four-Foot, 75-Pound Indian Believes He Is 167 Years Old

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A leathery little man with jet black hair was en route to New York today where scientists may determine if he is the world's oldest living human.

Juan Pereira, who stands 4 feet 4 inches and weighs only 75 pounds, arrived last night from his native Colombia en route to Cornell Medical Center. There he will undergo physical scientific and historic testing.

Estimates of his age range as high as 167 years, but the spry little Indian cannot read or write and does not know how old he is. He agrees, however, that the 167 figure is about right.

Dr. Jose Miguel Restrepo, an authority on human age, estimated Pereira's years at more than 120.

One report has it that an 86-year-old woman in Pereira's native village remembers him as an old man when she was a child.

Doctors who examined him in San Vicente de Paul Hospital at Medellin, Colombia, reported that while his wrist joints and radial artery were those of an extremely old man, his blood circulation was that of a youngster. His heart action and blood pressure showed unusual vigor, they added.

Pereira, said his interpreter Flavio Correa, recalls events which happened in the days of Simon Bolivar, who died in 1830. Bolivar was a South American hero.

Pereira, according to Correa, "drinks when he can get it, smokes when he can and has outlived five wives."

IKE MAY BE MAKING SHIFTS IN HIS TACTICS

WASHINGTON (AP)—If folks who have been talking about a "new" Stevenson and a "new" Nixon look closely in the next few days, some of them may see signs of a "new" Eisenhower.

President Eisenhower bids for re-election tonight with a nationally televised talk in which he is expected to lay out a blueprint for a more secure peace and more widespread prosperity.

The President speaks at 9:30 p.m. The CBS telecast, which is costing the Republican National Committee $79,000, has been billed as a program without gimmicks, during which Eisenhower will speak from a prepared text and without using any mechanical prompting device.

May Be Challenges
This speech will be his first broadcast in a campaign in which he has said he will not barnstorm. While he obviously plans to reply to Democratic contentions that his administration is losing the cold war with Russia, he probably won't mention the Democrats directly.

There may be some change made, however, when he starts out tomorrow for some folksy talks Friday in Iowa. He will speak that day at the National Field Days and Ploughing Contest at Newton and later at the Des Moines airport.

Nobody expects him to engage in any roundhouse swinging at the opposition of the kind some observers profess to see coming from a "new" Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee.

More Pictures
But unless all the current signs are wrong, Eisenhower will be found doing a lot of things that mark the candidate who wants to win and feels he must get next to the people to do it.

Already there have been some changes. It isn't difficult to tell around the White House these days that this is an election year.

Photographers who found a lot of time on their hands in previous months now are being kept busy making pictures of Eisenhower with visiting politicians and citizens credited with having some influence upon various voting groups.

JOHN W. KINT, 71, FAIRFIELD, DIES

ALL BECAUSE OF TV CRAZE

ST. COLUMB, England (AP) — Sidney Conroy says he was married happily for 20 years before television entered his home. But now, says the 41-year-old ice cream salesman, the one-eyed "monster" has sent his wife from his bed, his mind into turmoil and his employer's money to the winds.

Conroy told this tale of TV troubles in court here: "I had been a happy married man and in love with my wife for 20 years. Then four months ago that monster called TV came into my life and I have not had a minute's peace since."

"It has become a god in my house as far as my wife and family are concerned. No one must talk or even breathe when the monster is switched on."

"The climax came last Friday when the set broke down. My wife and family were walking about like lost people, and it seemed as if they all ignored me because I would not get it repaired quickly enough."

"My wife stormed off to bed at 7:30 and nobody would talk to me. When I went into our bedroom, my wife deliberately got out of bed, taking her pillows."

"That night I lay awake. All the time my mind was in a turmoil. 'The next day she never spoke all day and at night she went to sleep with the children. Came the next day and still she would not speak and that evening she and the family left me alone in the house.'

"I lay awake again, my mind almost numbed, and I thought I would teach her a lesson."

Conroy told the judge he drove around to the factory where he worked, took a tin box containing 294 pounds — $571.20 — and then threw the box and money away. "What possessed me I will never know," Conroy added. "I did not do it for personal gain. It all still seems like a dream."

The judge released Conroy on bail and sent him to a higher court on theft charges.

No one said whether the TV set is fixed yet.

which have been appearing in The Times during the past decade or so; so much so that I have clipped them: Penrose, Buchanan, Is Freedom Free, the Talent for Friendship and now Alexander Hamilton and have pasted them in a scrap book, which I propose to hand down to one of my children when I come to shuffle off. Oh no! Indeed, I would not for the world have the scrap book find its way into the waste basket when the final house cleaning takes place.

"I hope you are enjoying good health. I have been standing up remarkably well for one having passed 84 years on July 18 last."

President and Mrs. Eisenhower are a most grateful and appreciative couple. They never fail to express their thanks for the slight favor or courtesy accorded them. The recent GOP rally and picnic supper on their farm brought a special visit to the Hotel Gettysburg staff which prepared and served the supper. Today Henry M. Scharf received the following letter from President Eisenhower:

"Mrs. Eisenhower and I were so favorably impressed with the catering you provided for the picnic on Wednesday that we wanted to send you a special note to thank you and all the nice people who helped you. The food was delicious (a fact attested to also by many of our friends who were present). And certainly the difficult problem of seeing that so many people were able to eat at the same time was handled with efficiency and dispatch."

"To all who assisted you, our gratitude for contributing so largely to the enjoyment of what was, for us, a most pleasant occasion."

Today's Talk

KINDLY TALK

We are influenced by talk more than we ever realize. To hear the human voice, in kindly tones, mutually exchanged with some friend or interesting person somehow brightens an entire day. I am not much for sitting idly, near to another, and just watching the scenery about me. I have well learned that there is something to be gained by conversation with anyone, regardless of birth, station in life or education. On long train trips I have met some of the most interesting people one could wish to meet. There is a touch of loneliness in us all. We know that other people are quite like us in many ways. There reaction to good talk is immediate pleasure. It is interesting to note how different people are in different sections of the country. In the newer sections people seem warmer and more responsive. Like in the earlier days in Florida and California. Even now that characteristic friendliness remains.

How many times, in my travels, I have wanted someone to whom I could talk. There is a story in every life — in some, many stories. It is much more exciting to read a human being than to read a book about him. I read that entertaining book "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit," but I have tried to find that chap in real life, as he must have been, for that is a trick of authors. Perhaps that man was the author himself! Few are the writers who do not put themselves into their books.

Kindly talk with anyone is always warm and comforting, even though only a few sentences are spoken. I have learned that in hotels people are unusually friendly. They eat there, sleep there, do much of their work there, the same as at home, but the atmosphere is different. It's commercial and home isn't that way. I have never met anyone in a hotel who resented my talking with him or her.

It doesn't matter about the weather or petty disturbances, if we can listen to kindly talk at the beginning of each day, or during its many phases of activity.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Fear Ghosts" Protected, 1956, by the George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

CAMPAIGN DAYS

I'll hear them talking, pro and con,
I'll listen to both scorn and praise,
I'll let my good friends gabble on
Until the bleak November days.
Republican or Democrat,
I'll let each bluster and complain;
I know there's no escaping that.
When it's in order to campaign.
I'll tell nobody how I feel.
I'll ask nobody what is new?
No trivial news will I reveal,
As often I've been pleased to do.
I will not know what's right or wrong;
Of wisdom such as that I've none.
I find it's best to hold my tongue
While there's a campaign going on.
Since in both parties I have friends,
Whom I'll be needing, soon or late,
Until the present struggle ends
I will not angrily debate.
In silence I will go my way,
No strong-lunged orator I'll quote.
But, early on election day,
I'll seek the polls and cast my vote.

IKE WANTS HIS CAMPAIGNERS TO TELL THE TRUTH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told Republican campaign Tuesday that they need only to tell the truth about his administration to win the election.

Eisenhower spoke at a sendoff breakfast for Vice President Nixon and other Republican leaders setting out on campaign tours. "I see no reason for our going to the public with anything but the truth," Eisenhower said. "Our record itself is sufficient. If it is clear the people will support it."

"We do not need to indulge in the exaggerations of partisan politics. I do not claim perfection for this administration but where we have failed it was not from lack of trying."

Aggressors Disturb Peace

Sounding a peace theme, Eisenhower said it is difficult to be as peaceful in the present day world as Americans would like to be. He said that while we may be as peaceful as possible, someone else may make an aggressive move that would disturb that peace.

"While it is not a secure peace that we have," he said, "there are many, many thousands of American mothers that are mighty thankful their sons are not involved in any shooting."

Eisenhower, wearing a beaming smile, walked into the dining room with GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall.

Others Start Tours

Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, Sen. Knowland of California, Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., and Rep. Charles Halleck, also embarking on tours, were seated at the head table.

The occasion brought out a large turnout of newsmen who outnumbered party members and White House staffers about 2-1 among the crowd of 225.

Eisenhower, in a brown suit and looking fit, ate a hearty breakfast. He had melon, ham and scrambled eggs, whole wheat toast and skimmed milk.

"Look At Record"

Nixon, speaking briefly after Eisenhower finished, urged the Republicans to follow the advice of a Democrat, the late Al Smith, who used to say over and over again: "Let's look at the record."

That, Nixon said, is "what we are going to do."

"We don't have to embellish it with clever quips and fancy phrases," the vice president said. While misrepresentations or distortions will have to be answered, Nixon said, "We have something better to offer the American people than mere personal abuse and vilification of our opponents."

The Republicans, Nixon said, have the record and it can be summed up in one sentence: "Best Four Years"

"The American people, under the Eisenhower administration, have had the best four years of their lives."

Nixon and his party took off at 9 a.m. just a few minutes after the vice president finished speaking.

Nixon's plane was one of six lined up Tuesday morning to carry top Republican speakers to every corner of the country. The others were chartered for Seaton, Knowland, Martin, Halleck, and four members of Congress making up what the GOP calls a "truth squad" to reply to Democratic campaigners.

Eisenhower will swing into action this evening with a major televised address on the subject of world peace from CBS studios here.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Linemen of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. have decided political campaigns are an occupational hazard. In a letter to candidates in this area the linemen have asked office-seekers to help "in stamping out the dangerous practice of tacking and stapling placards and posters to service poles." Tacks and staples often give way under a lineman's spurs, making him liable to sudden falls.

Hail Lashes 4 Counties In State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Weather in Pennsylvania Tuesday was generally clear and cool with possible light showers in the mountain sections — but Monday was a different story in eastern sections of the Keystone State.

High winds, thunderstorms and hail struck widely scattered areas of Montgomery, Berks, Lebanon and Lancaster counties in the late afternoon.

Oley, Montgomery County, was among the hardest hit. Winds damaged trees and crops and ripped roofs off several farm homes and barns.

There were power failures in some communities, too. The Reading Co. shops in Reading reported damage of more than $35,000 to the severe winds that reportedly reached speeds of 45 miles an hour.

CLAIMS PARRIS ISLAND MARINES LIVE IN FEAR

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — The mother of a Marine recruit, who claims he was hit in the stomach by a corporal for failing to say "sir," said today the Marines at Parris Island are "living under a fear — a nervous fear."

The South Carolina training station is where six Marine recruits drowned in a marsh during a night march this summer.

Mrs. R. L. Hamisfar, mother of six children and wife of a World War I Army veteran, said she had been at other camps but had never seen such "fear" as evidenced at Parris Island.

She claims her 20-year-old son, Donald, was hit by a corporal for not saying "sir" to the noncommissioned officer during a mop and bucket demonstration.

Emergency Operation

Hamisfar underwent an emergency hernia operation. The Marine Corps, which is investigating the whole incident, said the recruit had a congenital hernia and it did

TENSION EASES IN KENTUCKY ON FUSS IN SCHOOLS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A general easing of tension was reported Tuesday in two western Kentucky mining-farming towns where National Guardsmen stood ready to prevent further anti-integration disorders.

White pupils were expected to return in increasing numbers to the consolidated school at Clay after four Negroes abandoned efforts to attend classes there.

The four Negro children were barred from the combined high and elementary school after a county school board order banning them was read on the school steps. They will attend a Negro school at nearby Providence.

The four had been escorted to school by National Guardsmen. Adj. Gen. J. B. Williams, commander, said the troops would remain at Clay and Sturgis, 11 miles away, indefinitely.

White Boycott Grows
At Sturgis High School, where eight Negroes are enrolled with 275 white pupils, there were signs of a growing boycott on the part of the white pupils. Only 73 were in class yesterday, and W. W. Wal-not know whether any blow aggravated it.

Mrs. Hamisfar said Donald "wanted out of there" — the Marines — but did not know whether he would formally apply for such a release. She said she was not planning to ask for any release and that such a step was up to him.

"I wonder what kind of care and treatment he'll get," she told a reporter. "He overheard an officer say they'll get him when he gets out. But with all this talk, I'm sure that will change."

"Marines on the Island are afraid to talk, afraid to tell you anything. However, the treatment at the hospital is quite good."

DUFF ANSWERS CLARK CHARGES ON HIS RECORD

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP) — Sen. James H. Duff, Republican candidate for re-election, says his Democratic opponent, Joseph S. Clark, is going "all over the state falsifying my voting record in Congress."

Termining Clark's allegations about his voting record "deliberate misrepresentation of facts," Duff Monday night told a Lawrence County GOP rally he was amazed because "I thought he (Clark) was going to be on the level in this campaign."

The former governor said Clark "is boasting (Estes) Kefauver for vice president and telling what a wonderful man he is and what a wonderful vice president he would make and then he turns around in the same breath and says that I don't attend sessions regularly."

Better Than Kefauver
Duff said that "in the first two sessions of the Congress of the Eisenhower administration my attendance was 16 per cent greater than Kefauver's."

"Furthermore," Duff said, "Clark is one of the national officers of Americans for Democratic Action." Duff added a wish that the people of the state "during this campaign get to know accurately what the program of the ADA is."

Duff said the ADA stands for: "Financial aid to Communist

No Negro applicants appeared on the campus on Monday. At Montgomery, Gov. James E. Folsom told newsmen that two Negro students expected to enroll apparently had gone to some other school. The Alabama highway patrol had been alerted "as a precautionary measure."

A Negro ex-soldier, John O. Lyon, 23, yesterday became the first of his race to enroll at the Gaston (N.C.) Technical Institute, a branch of the University of North Carolina. A few white students complained. James I. Mason, director of the school, said it was the last part of the Consolidated University of North Carolina to accept Negroes.

Cards Beat Brooklyn To Tie Up National League Race As Yankees Clinch AL Pennant

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

The St. Louis Cardinals, who hooked up with Brooklyn in those stirring pennant battles of the 1940s, have stolen a page from the past to leave the Dodgers with a skinny one-percentage-point edge in the National League race today.

The fourth-place Cardinals knocked off the Dodgers 6-5 last night on Ken Boyer's ninth-inning home run while second-place Milwaukee was rallying to defeat Pittsburgh 6-4.

At the same time the New York Yankees clinched the American League title by beating the Chicago White Sox 3-2. Mickey Mantle won it with an 11th-inning homer.

Redlegs Lose Pair
Cincinnati virtually was jarred out of the NL race by losing a two-night doubleheader to Philadelphia's "spillers" 4-3 and 7-4.

The New York Giants split a pair with Chicago's Cubs, winning 9-2 after a 4-2 defeat.

Cleveland reclaimed second place from Chicago in the American with a 1-0 and 6-0 two-night sweep against Washington. Kansas City trimmed Boston 6-5. Detroit defeated Baltimore 6-2.

Cards Blow Lead
The Cardinals blew a 4-0 lead before riding in on Boyer's two-out two-run homer. Gil Hodges' two-run homer in the seventh seemingly had given the Brooks a fourth straight victory.

Stan Musial, the Dodger killer of old, singled to open the ninth — ending a string of 17 consecutive batters put down by Roger Craig, Ed Roebuck and lesser Carl Erskine after Musial's 25th home run in the third.

Johnny Logan's two-run single in the eighth won for the Braves, who blew a 3-0 lead when the Pirates chased Lew Burdette with two in the sixth for a 4-3 edge. Lou Sleater won in relief.

Eighteenth For Roberts
Curt Simmons' seven-hitter stopped the Redlegs in the opener, despite Gus Bell's 30th and 31st homers that drove in three runs. Robin Roberts, winning his 18th, then handed Cincinnati a fourth straight loss, rolling along on a four-hit, 5-0 lead until the eighth when Ed Bailey's 27th home run knocked in three runs.

The Phillies, who knocked Milwaukee out of first place Saturday, swatted seven pitchers for 20 hits in the twin bill.

Bob Rush four-hit the Giants for his 13th victory in the first game, but Jackie Brandt then drove in five runs to beat the Cubs in the nightcap.

Mantle Eight Short
Mantle's two-out shot made him the eighth major leaguer ever to hit 50 home runs in one season, but left him eight games shy of Babe Ruth's record 60 paces in 1927 with nine games to go. It broke up Billy Pierce's bid for a 21st victory. Whitey Ford won his 19th, his best in the majors, but needed relief help from Bob Grim in the 11th. Yogi Berra's single tied it in the ninth. Mantle singled home the first Yank run. Walt Dropo and Larry Doby homered for the Sox runs.

Herb Score, backed by Jim Hegan's RBI double in the eighth inning, won his 18th with a four-hit, 14-strikeout job in the opener for the Tribe. Mike Garcia then three-hit Washington in the nightcap while Vic Wertz drove in three runs, two with his 30th homer.

Ray Boone's grand-slam homer gave the Tigers their 11th victory in the last 12 games.

A ninth-inning homer by Lou Skizas beat the Red Sox. Ted Williams had a home run, double and single in four trips.

PCC CHANGES CONSIDERED
BERKELEY, Calif. (P) — Changes can be expected in the Pacific Coast Conference athletic code governing aid to football players and other athletes, but just what revisions should be made remains a subject of disagreement.

The heads of the nine member institutions, with one absent, met yesterday to explore code provisions. Some wanted a stricter code, some wanted it more lenient.

"Nearly everybody in the room had a plan or a piece of a plan," commented Dr. Robert G. Sproul, president of the University of California and chairman of the Presidents' Council.

Plans discussed included that of the Ivy League, stricter than the present PCC code, the Big Ten plan recently approved by its faculty group, and another put forth by a committee appointed in May by the PCC itself.

Dr. Sproul said another Presidents' Council meeting will be held in about a month and added, "We hope to reach conclusions and make definite recommendations to the faculty representatives."

TEEN-AGERS FACING VETS IN PLAY TODAY

INDIANAPOLIS (P) — Teen-agers, threatening to make shambles of the 59th USG Women's Amateur golf tournament, faced opposition today that could teach them respect for their elders.

Joanne Gunderson, 17-year-old blonde who played the sharpest second-round match yesterday, was matched with defending champion Pat Lesser in an all-Seattle feature.

Both play out of Sand Point Club but they never have met in a tourney match.

Three Off Par

Tall Joanne, USGA Junior champion, shaved three strokes off par yesterday and had to play only 10 holes to crush Elsie Johnson, Jenkins, Ky., 9 and 8.

Little Clifford Ann Creed of Opelousas, La., another 17-year-old who relaxes before a match by playing with a yo-yo, wore a coonskin cap while cutting up Mrs. Elaine F. Woolworth, Noroton, Conn., 8 and 7. Clifford Ann shot 1-over-par 37 on the front nine.

The tiny Louisiana girl today ran into a really rough match player, Barbara McIntire, Toledo, Ohio, who lost the playoff to pro Kathy Cornelius in the Women's National Open. Barbara whipped Marcie Manley, Indianapolis, yesterday, 6 and 4.

Needed Experience

Anne Quast, 19-year-old Western women's champion, was 1 under par for 14 holes in a 6 and 4 victory over Curtis Cup player Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore. Today Anne faced another Curtis Cupper, Barbara Romack, Sacramento, Calif., 1964 winner of the USGA Women's Amateur tournament.

Margaret (Wiffi) Smith, also 19, entered this tourney as a favorite after capturing the British and French titles this spring. But yesterday she looked as if she could have used the experience she missed by passing up three major U.S. tournaments this summer.

Wiffi was five strokes over par and had to play an extra hole to get past 51-year-old Mrs. Harrison Flippin, non-playing captain of the U.S. Curtis Cup team.

ROSEN, FELLER OUT OF TRIBE'S LINEUP FOR '57

CLEVELAND (P) — General Manager Hank Greenberg has counted third baseman Al Rosen and pitcher Bob Feller out of the Cleveland Indians' plans for next season.

At a luncheon speech on Monday Greenberg said that he would offer Feller a non-playing job with the Tribe before this season ends.

Rosen, Hank declared, might "be better off playing somewhere else" because he has "completely lost his confidence."

"Confidence is an important factor, and I'm afraid Rosen has reached the point where he can't play here anymore," Greenberg said.

Far From His Peak

Rosen, who will be 32 next March and is in his eighth season with Cleveland, is batting only .269 this season, has hit 14 home runs and has driven in 55 runs. That compared with his 1953 peak of a .336 average, 43 homers and 145 RBIs — a performance that earned him unanimous selection as the league's Most Valuable Player.

Feller, nearing 38, made his first start in more than four months Saturday and pitched his only complete game this season, losing a seven-hitter to Boston 5-3. He has two other losses to show for 40 additional innings of work, including one start in April and another in May.

Monday night Rosen indicated he might retire from baseball.

To Have Physical

"I've had a lot of injuries this summer," he said. "My neck and back have bothered me most of the time. Maybe I'm at that age when you become injury prone."

"At any rate, I plan to have a complete physical examination next month. I wanted to do this in as high class a manner as possible, so this whole thing is certainly embarrassing for me. When I make up my mind and arrive at a decision, there won't be any reconsidering."

Feller's reaction to Greenberg's offer of another job was that he would "have a talk with myself" before seeing Greenberg and that he wanted no "manufactured work."

READING, Pa. (P) — The finals of the Governor's Cup playoff in the Eastern League moves here tonight for what may prove to be the last of the best-of-five series between the Schenectady Blue Jays and the hometown Indians.

The pennant-winning Jays took a 2-up advantage in the series last night in Schenectady with a 4-2 triumph.

Henry Bolinda scattered seven hits to Indian batters. A two-run triple by Don Landrum in the fourth inning sparked Schenectady's winning attack.

PITT BETTER THAN IN '55 COACH SAYS

PITTSBURGH (P) — Johnny

Michelson, who coaches the Pitt football team that some experts are tabbing as "best in the East," said today he has a "slightly better" eleven than last year but he's worried.

"First of all, there's that old bugaboo of overconfidence as we open the season against West Virginia University at Morgantown (W. Va.) Saturday," Big Mike declared. "Then, there's our schedule. It's a fearsome thing. I don't see how we can be picked already as the 'best in the East.'"

Pitt, which had a 73 record last season and dropped a 7-0 squeaker to Georgia Tech in the Sugar Bowl, has 20 lettermen on its squad. Sophomores don't figure much in Michelson's plans because he has so many tried and true seniors and juniors.

The starting lineup against West Virginia is slated to have seven seniors and four juniors. One of the juniors, however, is a hurry-up replacement for an injured right end. He is Dick Scherer, who starred for North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh. He will sub for Dale Brown who is sidelined with bruised ribs.

Left end Joe Walton has been hobbling around with an injured leg but he is expected to be in good condition for the opener. He is considered by most experts as the most logical All America candidate on the Pitt squad.

"We've had trouble with injuries to our ends—everything all at once," Michelson said. "Otherwise the squad is shaping up."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

PITCHING — Curt Simmons and Robin Roberts, Phillies, gave just three walks and struck out 11 between them for 4-3 and 7-4 sweep of two-night doubleheader that virtually knocked Redlegs out of National League race.

HITTING — Johnny Logan, Braves, singled home two runs that overhauled 4-3 Pirate lead in eighth and hoisted Milwaukee to within one percentage point of National League lead.

Pitching (based on 15 decisions) — Newcombe, Brooklyn, 24-6, .800.

BACKGROUND ON SUEZ CANAL DISPUTE GIVEN

By BEM PRICE
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomats of 18 nations, including Secretary of State Dulles, are converging on London for a conference on the Suez crisis.

This is the background of that crisis which rests, in large measure, on the international convention of 1888 "respecting the free navigation of the Suez Maritime Canal."

This convention was signed at Constantinople Oct. 29, 1888. Parties to it were Great Britain, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Spain, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Russia and Turkey.

Came In 1848
At the time the Ottoman Empire, which radiated from Turkey, was Egypt's nominal ruler, but in truth Britain held the canal and, for all practical purposes, Egypt itself through agreements with Egypt's all-but-independent Khedive.

England began to enter Egypt commercially in 1848 when the Pasha Abbas I granted permission to build a railroad between Alexandria and Cairo.

After Abbas' death his uncle Said Pasha became khedive and it was he who gave his good friend, the Frenchman Ferdinand de Lesseps, a franchise to build and operate the Suez Canal.

99 years (ending in 1968), in no way denied Egypt's sovereignty over the canal.

Originally the British opposed the canal's construction and succeeded in delaying the project for two years. Eventually, though, De Lesseps got a go-ahead from Said, who in turn gave the British franchises to operate banks and telegraphs.

When Said died in 1863 he was succeeded by his nephew Ismail, whose personal extravagances led Egypt down the road to national bankruptcy. To raise money for his private pleasures, Ismail sold Egypt's holdings in the canal to Britain, thus giving Britain 44 per cent of the canal's stock.

Stirred To Revolt
Under Ismail, Egypt's finances deteriorated into chaos. Britain and France entered Egypt to protect their investments and took over Egypt's revenue systems.

The presence of these foreigners stirred Egyptians to a revolt under a cabinet member named Orabi. In May 1882 there was a massacre of Europeans in Alexandria. Britain invited France to help put down the unrest. France declined and Britain went in alone. She bombarded the Alexandrian forts, landed troops and suppressed Orabi. Suez became a British base.

While Britain brought order and increased Egyptian prosperity, her presence fanned a still burning flame of nationalism.

The 1888 Convention
Meanwhile, British presence at the canal inspired some unrest among the canal's users. The result was the 1888 convention.

The first article declared, "The Suez Maritime Canal shall always be free and open, in time of war as in time of peace, to every vessel of commerce or of war without distinction of flag."

Under Article 8 "the agents in Egypt of the signatory powers... shall be charged with its execution. In case of any event threatening the security of free passage... they shall meet to proceed to the necessary verifications."

"They shall inform the khedivial government of the danger... in order that the government may take proper steps to insure protection and the free use of the canal."

Egypt was charged by the convention with insuring the free passage provisions. The treaty said this provision, however, should not interfere "with the measures... (the government) might find necessary to take for securing by their own forces the defense of Egypt and the maintenance of public order."

It is Egypt's present contention that free passage is in no way hampered by Egypt's taking over operation of the canal from the company originally formed by De Lesseps.

England and France hold that the fulfillment of the free passage provisions rests upon the supervision of the "agents in Egypt of the signatory powers"; that one nation control, even if it is Egypt, is dangerous.

Want Some Control On Water Authorities

HARRISBURG (AP)—A legislative investigating committee was in agreement today that "some semblance" of control should be exercised over municipal authorities in the water business.

"The feeling of the committee is that there should be some recommendation to bring these authorities under some semblance of control similar to that held by the Public Utility Commission over regular public service firms," said Rep. Breth (D—Clearfield).

Breth made the statement after the committee of which he is a member, held a hearing on Monday as part of a study of water resources. The group works under the Joint State Government Commission.

ROCKETING TO THE MOON MAY BE POSSIBLE

By VERN HAUGLAND
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Navy scientists said Tuesday it may become possible to send a rocket to the moon.

The rocket probably would deliver no more than a "four-pound payload" to the moon, said Kurt R. Stehling, chief of propulsion at the Naval Research Laboratory here, and Richard Foster, a member of the laboratory propulsion staff.

For that reason, they said, the initial payload might consist of nothing but a charge of metallic dust. They said that if it were fired at a new moon and if it landed on the darkened surface, the impact might be witnessed from the earth as a large bright flash.

Stehling and Foster expressed their views in an article prepared for a new magazine, Missiles and Rockets. The article is based on a paper scheduled to be read tomorrow at the International Astronautical Federation Congress in Rome.

Reflect No Views
They stressed that the opinions expressed were not to be construed as reflecting the views of the Navy Department.

Stehling and Foster said that "when carried aloft to 70,000 feet by a huge four-million-cubic-foot skyhook balloon, a solid-propellant step rocket will be capable of bringing a four-pound payload to the moon."

They noted that small rockets frequently have been carried aloft and launched from balloons, but added that a lunar rocket might require a cluster of smaller balloons for greater stability. The rocket would be launched straight up, through the balloon or balloons they said.

The Navy scientists proposed a three-stage rocket vehicle which

NIXON LAUDS GOP TACTICS OF DODGING WAR

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Vice President Nixon said Tuesday the Eisenhower administration "deserves a vote of confidence" because it "got the United States out of one war, kept it out of others and offers the best hope for peace without surrender."

Nixon, in the first prepared speech of a 15,000-mile political barnstorming swing, hit hard on the "peace and prosperity" theme on which the Republican campaign is based this year.

"The great majority of the American people have enjoyed the best four years of their lives under the Eisenhower administration," he declared.

And harking back to the corruption in government issue of four years ago, Nixon said President Eisenhower "has cleaned up the mess he found, has not allowed another one to be made, and will continue to maintain standards that will make every American proud of his government in Washington."

The vice president, often accused by Democratic critics of using unfair campaign tactics, pledged that he would "set the record straight" whenever "our opponents misrepresent and distort the record and... vilify the President."

Nowhere in prepared excerpts of his remarks did he mention Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson or Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who is seeking Nixon's job. He referred only to "our opponents" and "our critics."

Replying to Democratic contentions that the peace is precarious and that American prestige in the world is at an all-time low, he said:

"It probably is not surprising that those who defend an administration which refused to admit that the war in Korea was a war might not know the difference between war and peace. But the American people know the difference..."

On the prosperity issue, he

Sees Elimination Of Toll Highways

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An executive of the American Automobile Assn. predicted today that the new federal highway building program will eliminate the necessity for toll highway construction on a large scale.

At the opening session of the 54th annual meeting of the AAA, Russell E. Singer, executive vice president, said "the 40,000-mile national system of interstate and defense highways, for which the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost, will provide the necessary highway facilities between large centers of population." He added:

"To attempt to build and finance parallel toll facilities would be wholly impracticable."

In another address, Andrew J. Sordani, AAA president, called for a broad program of study and research into the basic causes of highway mishaps.

claimed "there are more jobs at higher wages, with greater take-home pay, for 66,600,000 American wage earners than at any time in history."

Until the Eisenhower administration took office in 1953, he said, the American people for 20 years had "never had real prosperity except in war or as a result of war."

He stressed he did not mean to say that "our national leaders got us into war so that we would have prosperity." But he said it does prove that "the New Deal and Fair Deal planners were never able to find the secret to the problem of creating prosperity during peacetime."

"Have Not Shared"
He conceded that some segments of the economy "have not shared as they should in this increasing prosperity," adding:

"I can assure you that this administration is using every resource at our command to speed up the disposal of the huge surpluses of farm products which have been responsible for the delay our farmers have experienced in moving ahead with the rest of the economy..."

KEFAUVER SAYS IKE TRYING TO SABOTAGE REA

By JOHN CHADWICK
MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver accused the Eisenhower administration Tuesday "of trying to sabotage" the Rural Electrification Administration by cutting its funds and sources of power.

The administration's power policies came under fire from the Democratic vice presidential candidate as he swung into a second day's campaign in Wisconsin before crossing over into Minnesota.

Kefauver issued his statement before taking off for a tour through the west central part of the state to LaCrosse.

Cutback For REA
With a visit to the Oakdale REA on his schedule, he said President Eisenhower had recommended "a drastic cutback in REA appropriations and loan funds" after his inauguration.

If Congress had not overridden Eisenhower's budget recommendations, he said, REA cooperatives would have been unable to finance needed additional facilities.

"The Eisenhower administration has sought to cut off the very life blood of the systems—their sources of abundant, low-cost power," he said.

In the last session of Congress, he said, "it was White House pressure" which defeated bills for the proposed Hells Canyon dam on the Snake River between Idaho and Oregon, the Niagara power project, and for speeding atomic power development.

Similarly, he said, "it was White House pressure which put over the Dixon-Yates deal"—a subject which he said he plans to discuss fully tonight.

He called the Dixon-Yates contract, subsequently canceled by the administration after congressional investigators charged a conflict of interest by a Budget Bureau consultant, "an attempt to destroy TVA."

Under the contract, a private power plant at West Memphis, Ark., would have been built to feed electricity into the Tennessee Valley Authority system to replace TVA power supplied to Atomic Energy Commission installations.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev will make his second visit to Yugoslavia today. It is described as a vacation trip, but some political circles here think the Soviet Communist party boss may transact some business too.

The Soviet news agency Tass and the Yugoslav agency Tanjug announced the trip last night as a "private visit" lasting several days. Khrushchev has been vacationing on Russia's Black Sea coast.

FILLY DROWNS DURING RACE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Death took a leading role in yesterday's eighth race at Atlantic City Racetrack.

Nautical, a three-year-old filly leading the field in the closing stages of a mile-and-a-half race, suddenly jumped the hedge that surrounds the track unseating jockey Thomas A. Root. The frightened horse angled toward a pond in the center of the track, avoiding a ditch and run-

IKE, NEHRU EXCHANGE MAIL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says that President Eisenhower has exchanged correspondence with Prime Minister Nehru of India about the Suez Canal crisis.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower sent Nehru a message late last week in response to one received previously from Nehru. Hagerty declined to disclose any details. The press secretary said Eisenhower and Nehru have been exchanging correspondence for some time. He said the latest Eisenhower message "dealt partly" with the Suez situation.

Association Plans

Authoritative sources in New Delhi said Eisenhower told Nehru the United States was going ahead with plans to establish an association of major users of the canal. The informants said British Prime Minister Eden sent Nehru a similar note.

Eisenhower and Eden also were reported to have assured the Indian leader they did not intend to use force.

SCHOOL SKI RUN

Abandon Search For Pelagia Crew

BODOE, Norway (AP) — Norwegian rescue officials Tuesday abandoned the search for 30 missing crew members of the American freighter Pelagia. Five survivors and two bodies were recovered.

The ship, carrying 10,000 tons of Swedish iron ore from Narvik, Norway, to Baltimore, went down Saturday night in a storm off Bodoe, above the Arctic Circle.

A spokesman for the Bodoe air rescue station said ships in the area would keep a lookout for survivors or bodies but "it is extremely unlikely that there are any survivors alive at this moment."

"We have given up all hope," he added.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Tuesday expanded the plans for his upcoming trip to Iowa to include an airport speech in Des Moines and an overnight stay in Boone, where Mrs. Eisenhower was born.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower will fly to Des Moines Thursday afternoon and motor about 60 miles to Boone.
